

Name: _____

Date: _____

Assaultive Offenses Quiz

What are the three levels of assaults?

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.

List two common elements they contain.

- 4.
- 5.

If a person is 65 years old or older and they are offended, what does the punishment become?

- 6.

What is the victim in a Class B misdemeanor assault?

- 7.

What are the elements of a Class A misdemeanor assault?

- 8.
- 9.

What are the two things that make an assault a third-degree felony?

- 10.
- 11.

What are the five things that constitute a family member?

- 12.
- 13.
- 14.

15.

16.

What is a dating relationship based on?

17.

18.

19.

What makes an assault an aggravated assault?

20.

21.

When is an aggravated assault a first-degree felony?

22.

23.

24.

25.

When it comes to abandoning or endangering a child, under what age is someone considered a child?

26.

When an actor abandons a child where there is risk of harm and does not intend to return, what is the punishment?

27.

When an actor abandons a child and there is a risk of imminent danger of death, bodily injury, or physical or mental impairment, what is the punishment?

28.

What is the punishment when an actor abandons a child where there is risk of harm but intends to return?

29.

Deadly conduct is a Class A misdemeanor when the actor places another in imminent danger of what?

30.

What is presumed if an actor knowingly points a firearm at or in the direction of another person?

31.

Deadly conduct is a third-degree felony when the actor knowingly discharges a firearm at or in the direction of what?

32.

33.

34.

35.

What is the punishment level when someone wants to cause a reaction by emergency services personal and threatens to commit violence?

36.

A terroristic threat is a Class B misdemeanor when any person is placed in fear of what?

37.

When the answer to question number 37 happens to a family member, what is the punishment?

38.

A terroristic threat is a third-degree felony when the actor does any one of what three things?

39.

40.

41.